State Air Toxics Program by Department staff. These changes implement the New York State Clean Air Compliance Act (NYSCACA), the federal Clean Air Act (CAA) and streamline the current state air toxics regulatory requirements and guidelines.

The NYS DEC will hold four public information meetings at various locations across the State which will be announced in the Environmental Notice Bulletin on May 12th 2010, to discuss the revisions with the public and regulated industry.

Watch our webpage for more information.

Please join us at June's Wine Tasting event!
